ABOUT EPISCOPAL NEWS SERVICE

ENS is the Episcopal Church’s officially sponsored ministry of storytelling that highlights how the Church lives into the Jesus Movement and lives out the Gospel in the world.

With an emphasis on social justice issues, ENS content inspires our influential readers to act, engage and connect to make a difference in the world.

ENS has the audience reach, the trusted content and the responsive platforms to help sponsors raise awareness of their ministries through our website, e-newsletter and social media channels.

JOBS, EVENTS, & PRESS RELEASE SERVICE

Promote your job openings, clergy calls, upcoming events, and press releases on the Episcopal News Service for free, or select one of our paid options for a significantly wider audience reach.

All paid listings are featured on every page of the Episcopal News Service website and in the daily e-newsletter, pushing your message out to more than 100,000 clergy and lay ministry leaders, church administrators, Episcopal thought leaders and other active and involved Christians.

Jobs episcopalnewsservice.org/jobs

Clergy calls and lay job listings are accepted from Episcopal Church dioceses, seminaries and related agencies and organizations, as well as from full-communion partners. Featured listings are $210 for one week, $315 for two weeks, $470 for one month, or $705 for two months.

Events episcopalnewsservice.org/events

Religious events with a churchwide interest are accepted from Episcopal Church dioceses, seminaries and related agencies and organizations, as well as from full-communion partners. Featured listings are $210 for one week, $315 for two weeks, $470 for one month, or $705 for two months.

Press Release Service episcopalnewsservice.org/pressreleases

Communicate an official message or position statement, announce the launch of a new initiative, or generate interest in your organization, brand, resource, product or service.

The Press Release Service is free, but ENS also offers three paid options for a significantly wider reach. Featured listings are $210 for one week, $315 for two weeks or $470 for one month.
